

BEFORE THE
WASHINGTON METROPOLITAN AREA TRANSIT COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D. C.
ORDER NO. 180

Served August 14, 1962

IN THE MATTER OF:

Authorized Operations of)
D. C. Transit System, Inc.)

During the course of a hearing on an application by D. C. Transit System, Inc., for temporary authority to provide service for the Department of the Navy, held August 6, 1962, D. C. Transit System, Inc. admitted that it did not have the requisite operating authority to perform the contract for the Department of the Navy. This was due to the fact that a Federal court had ordered the Interstate Commerce Commission to revoke a contract carrier permit issued to Transit to perform the contract operation. Therefore, the company's only recourse was to apply for temporary authority to authorize performance of the contract pending application for permanent authority. Transit so applied, but in an order issued August 13, 1962, its application for temporary authority was denied.

Therefore, the Commission is of the opinion and finds that D. C. Transit System, Inc. of 3600 M Street, Washington, D. C., has been and is transporting passengers for hire under contract with the Department of the Navy without having secured a certificate of public convenience and necessity to authorize the same. Further, the Commission is of the opinion and finds that D. C. Transit System, Inc. be ordered to cease and desist from performing any and all operations under said contract.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that D. C. Transit System, Inc. be, and it is hereby, ordered to cease and desist operations under the said contract, effective August 25, 1962.

FOR THE COMMISSION:

DELMER ISON
Executive Director
